

Life-Study Fellowship's Blessings for Children

Blessing for Children Suffering from War

Blessed are the children, innocent souls amidst the tumult of war and conflict. May they find strength in their resilience, and courage in their hearts. May they be shielded from harm, and wrapped in the arms of compassion. May their laughter pierce through the darkness, a beacon of hope in the night. ~Amen

Blessing For Teens and Young Adults

Heavenly Father, we lift up our young people to Your care in this challenging World. Guide them with Your wisdom and protect them from harm. May they embrace truth, seek knowledge, and grow in body, mind, and spirit. Grant them courage to stand by their convictions amidst pressures. Let them shine with kindness and find comfort in their faith during hard times. ~Amen.

Blessing for Parents and Guardians

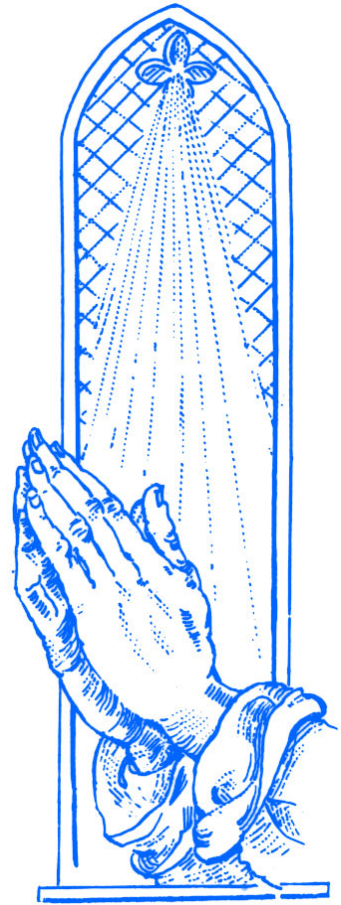

Heavenly Father, we seek Your blessings for parents to embody goodness and grace in their roles. In moments of challenge, grant them patience and resilience. Strengthen them to uphold boundaries with love and wisdom. May their guidance lead their children to walk in Your ways. ~Amen.

Blessing for Children

May the gentle Hands of Jesus guide your steps. And may your laughter fill the World with light. May innocence be your cloak, and wonder be your guiding star each night. And may kindness blossom in your heart. May you always feel cherished and adored, For you are a precious gift, a work of art. ~Amen

Blessing for Keeping Children Safe at School

May the gentle embrace of guardian angels surround our children each day of learning and growth within their school. May their footsteps be guided away from harm's reach, and may their minds be filled with curiosity, creativity, and knowledge. Bless them with the courage to speak up against injustice, the wisdom to make good choices, and the kindness to uplift one another. May the school halls resonate with laughter, friendship, and the echoes of dreams taking flight. May they return home each day with stories of adventures in both learning and love. ~Amen.

"Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

~ Proverbs 22:6 (KJV)

This verse underscores the importance of guiding children onto a righteous path, with the assurance that such upbringing will remain with them throughout their lives.
