

Life-Study Fellowship Blessings From the Bible Summer Series 4 of 4

We bring you Roman 8: God's Unbreakable Love!

"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

~ Romans 8:38-39

Romans 8 reassures us of our secure position in Christ. It emphasizes the power of the Holy Spirit, the hope of future glory, and the unshakable love of God. It encourages us to live by the Spirit, trusting in God's plan and protection, and resting in the knowledge that nothing can separate them from His love.

Find a quiet place to read from your Bible Romans 8. Below will give you some content to your reading.

Romans 8:1

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

Emphasis: This verse reassures believers of their freedom from condemnation, setting a tone of hope and grace.

Romans 8:18

"For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

Emphasis: This verse provides comfort and encouragement, reminding the us that present hardships are temporary compared to the eternal glory that awaits.

Romans 8:28

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Emphasis: Highlighting this verse can strengthen faith, assuring the congregation that God has a purposeful plan, even in difficult times.

Romans 8:38-39

"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Emphasis: These concluding verses powerfully affirm God's unbreakable love, offering reassurance and comfort to the congregation.

A Blessing Inspired by Romans 8

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ fill you with peace, knowing there is no condemnation for those in the Spirit. Be strengthened by the assurance that all things work together for good to those who love God.

In trials, may you find comfort in knowing present sufferings are nothing compared to the glory to come. May the Holy Spirit guide you and intercede in your weaknesses.

Stand firm, knowing if God is for you, nothing can be against you. Rest in the truth that nothing can separate you from God's love in Christ Jesus.

Go in peace, uplifted by His boundless love. ~Amen.

Following the guidance of Romans 8 involves embracing its spiritual truths and applying them to your life. Here are some practical tips based on the key themes of Romans 8:

Embrace Your Identity in Christ: Recognize that you are free from condemnation and live according to the Spirit, focusing on spiritual growth.

Find Hope in Suffering: Understand that present difficulties are temporary compared to the future glory, and use challenges as opportunities for spiritual growth.

Trust in God’s Sovereignty: Believe that all things work together for good and seek the Holy Spirit’s guidance in your life.

Secure Your Confidence in God’s Love: Rest in the assurance that nothing can separate you from God’s love, and nurture a close relationship with Him.

Live as a Child of God: Embrace your identity as a beloved child of God and let this influence your actions and interactions.

Share the Hope: Encourage others with the hope and comfort found in Romans 8, helping them apply these promises to their own lives.

“What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?”
~Romans 8:31

Romans 8 was written by the Apostle Paul as part of his letter to the Christian believers in Rome. Paul, known for his profound theological insights, wrote this around A.D. 57 during his third missionary journey. The chapter emphasizes life in the Spirit, the assurance of salvation, and the unbreakable love of God for believers.

Paul was a former persecutor of Christians who became one of the most important apostles, dedicating his life to spreading the message of Jesus Christ and shaping the early Christian church.

We hope you enjoyed our 4 part summer series — Blessing from the Bible! Please write back and let us know any blessings or troubles you may have. Your support is appreciated, though not required. Mail to: Life-Study Fellowship, 90 Heights Rd, Noroton CT 06820-4197

Name: _____

Address: _____ Apt _____

City : _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

